They never tire of Ivoryton! RUTH HOLDEN, who scored one of the season's sensations opposite CHARLES BUTTERWORTH in "George Washington Slept Here" recently, was a visitor to Ivoryton during the past week . . . Just vacationing and seeing plays . . . Both Hollywood and the radio industry are seeking the rights to next week's play — that being the popular OWEN DAVIS comedy hit, "MR. AND MRS. NORTH." Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer wants it for a film and a network wants to turn it into a radio serial. Whatever the outcome, you can be sure that MILTON STIEFEL — with the help of NANCY CARROLL and Company — will turn it into one of the season's biggest successes . . . FRANCIS LEDERER, who makes his IVORYTON debut on August 25th in "THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS," is the most popular matinee idol in the country these days . . . mobs of women have swarmed him throughout his current tour . . . And if theatre-goers want a handsome treat — they can find it in the person of WILLARD PARKER. PARKER, a former IVORYTON actor and husband of glamorous MARIAN PIERCE of last week's "THE MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER"—will don pink tights for the circus scene in "LADY IN THE DARK" when that show resumes its New York run in several weeks — and it's an even bet that PARKER will cause more feminine hearts to stir than even those stirred by his predecessor, VICTOR MATURE.
